86th Convention

13-15 September 2024

Venue Cymru, Llandudno

Souvenir Programme £10

INTERNATIONAL
BROTHERHOOD OF MAGICIANS
Through its official publication The Linking Ring it links the world

Hello I.B.M. family! My wife Laura and I are thrilled to be part of your 2024 86th Annual British Ring Convention.

What a convention it promises to be. From the early bird start on Thursday night at Magic Bar Live to the Sunday afternoon closing show and installation, it promises to be a convention full of fantastic lectures, workshops, shows and, best of all, magical fun.

Perhaps the best part of my job is the chance to attend incredible events like this and meet so many I.B.M. members from around the world. If you get the chance, I hope you will take a moment to introduce yourself and say hello.

Thank you all for your hospitality and here is to a marvelous convention!
Cheers.

Sincerely,

Mike Dunagan

I.B.M. International President 2024-2025

Hello Magic Family,

On behalf of the International Brotherhood of Magicians British Ring No. 25, Steve and I are very proud to welcome you to our fantastic 86th convention here in Llandudno. Whether it be your first time, or whether you are a convention regular, the I.B.M. appreciates your support. If you are not already a member of the British Ring, please do consider joining us and becoming part of our magic family.

Thank you to our hard-working convention team headed by Moira Fletcher for bringing together a fantastic programme of events, lectures and shows.

It is wonderful to have our new International President, Mike Dunagan, and his wife, Laura, with us, together with past International presidents.

I am sure you are aware of members who cannot make the journey to Llandudno due to health and personal reasons. Please let them know we are thinking of them during the convention and encourage them to look forward to our daily Facebook updates and bumper double Llandudno convention Key Ring issue.

Thank you to my partner, Dr Steven Jan, who has supported me on all my British Ring activities throughout my Presidential year.

Steve and I wish President-Elect, Aidan Heritage, together with his wife Heather and children Lily and Alice, a fantastic year ahead leading and promoting the I.B.M. British Ring.

WE WISH YOU A LOVELY LLANDUDNO CONVENTION!

Philip Partridge
I.B.M. British Ring President 2023–2024

CYNGOR • TREF LLANDUDNO TOWN • COUNCIL

As the Mayor of Llandudno, I would like to extend a warm welcome to you all to your convention this year being held in “The Queen of Welsh Resorts”.

During your stay the Mayoress and I hope you are able to take advantage of the facilities that are available not only in Llandudno, but further afield, this area has some of the most spectacular scenery in Britain. Llandudno has one of the finest piers in the UK and well worth a visit.

The Town also has an abundance of quality restaurants, a theatre and sports and leisure facilities.

Please make the most of your visit and enjoy your convention and attractions that Llandudno has to offer. The Mayoress and I look forward to meeting you on the 14th September 2024.

Cllr Michael Pearce
Mayor of Llandudno

Policy on all types of photography

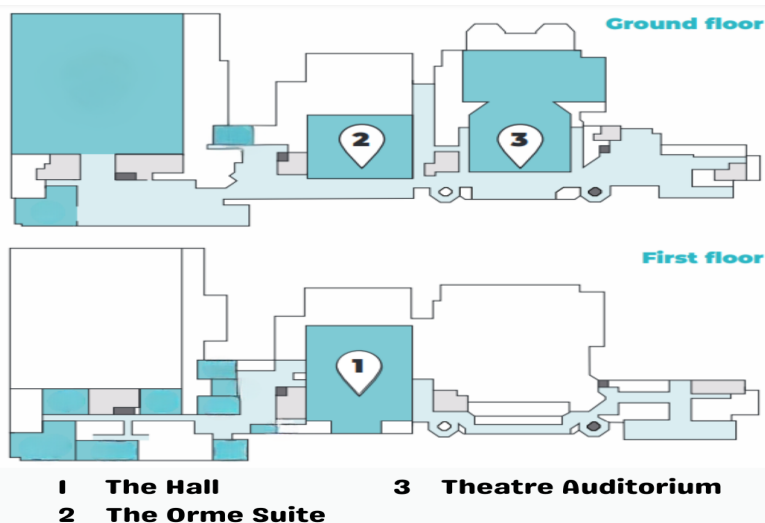

You are welcome to take photographs in the open areas and post them on social media, but please ask the subject's permission first. Please tag the British Ring and share using #britishringllandudno24. The British Ring's official still and video photographers are the only persons authorised to photograph performances, lectures, or demonstrations at any venue and then only with the permission of the artiste and the British Ring Council.

Mobile Phones

Please ensure your mobile phone is switched off or switched to silent during any programmed event. Mobile phones may not be used for any method of photography or recording.

Stewarding/Delegate Safety

We would respectfully ask that all delegates comply with reasonable requests by both our own volunteer stewards and the venue staff. All requests are made with safety in mind, and we are obliged to comply with all Health and Safety issues. Therefore, if asked to clear any areas, please do so immediately when requested. We need to ensure areas are cleared before we can progress onto the next event and therefore your prompt attention when requested would be appreciated.

Convention Artistes

Aaron Crow:

Saturday: An Evening Of Magic, 7.30pm

Multi award-winning Aaron Crow has toured with some of the biggest productions in the world and has featured on Broadway, London's West-End and the iconic Sydney opera house.

Ada Campe:

Saturday: An Evening Of Magic, 7.30pm

Ada Campe is a variety artiste, cabaret performer, comedian and magician with an eclectic portfolio. As well as cabaret shows in London's West End, she regularly hosts and performs across the UK cabaret and comedy circuits, for Comedy Club 4 Kids and Variety Club 4 Kids, and at corporate events, Museum Lates and festivals!

Billy Reid:

Saturday: Lecture, 11am

Saturday: Stars of Close-Up, 1.15pm

Billy Reid is passionate about creative, artistic, storytelling magic. Billy is a two-time Scottish Champion of Magic, and his show, Watch Closely, has been running monthly in Glasgow for 6 years.

DECADE

A collection of original sleights, commercial tricks, and practical ideas that Billy has created & refined over the last 10 years as a working pro. He will share 5 original sleights, 10 incredible tricks (including a couple of 'magician foolers'), and an in-depth "Ideas" section covering everything from performance preparation and audience management to gig "Best Practices" & lots more...

Brian Lead:

Friday: History Of Mystery, 4pm

Fifty Years of Magic History

Brian Lead is one of only a handful of people to have received the Hoffmann Award for contributions to magic literature. For this golden celebration of the History of Mystery session, founded by Eddie Dawes in 1973, current host Brian Lead will be tracing its highlights as he recalls some of the outstanding speakers and their wide range of topics.

Chris Williams:

Friday: Opening Show, 10.15am

Chris Williams has spent the last 23 years performing circus and magic as Harley The Clown at some of the largest festivals in Wales and as the resident entertainment at Greenwood Family Park for the last 13 years. He is now the owner and host of The Magic Bar Live. Chris is really excited to welcome everyone to Llandudno and even more excited to perform some of his favourite magic as the Opening Show!

Fraser Stokes:

Saturday: Sooty and Friends Magic Show, 10.30am

Saturday: Lecture, 4.30pm

Take it or leave it: tips and tricks I have learned from family entertainment

Fraser has been performing for families since the age of 8. No, really he genuinely has! Fraser will share some things he has learned performing family magic. He shares his experience openly with the understanding some things aren't for everyone. Simply he says "take it or leave it".

Joel Dickinson

Saturday: Lecture, 9.30am

Saturday: Stars of Close-Up, 1.15pm

Sunday: Closing Show, 4pm

Joel has been making events and parties worldwide unforgettable for twenty years and counting. His secret? A passion for the seemingly impossible - magic, misdirection, and entertainment right under your nose.

From Concept to Performance: Inside the Mind of a Magic Creator

Joel will share a variety of magic that has been designed and developed over many years, alongside brand-new tricks. Discover the techniques and inspirations that fuel his innovative performances and learn how to transform a simple concept into a captivating act. Perfect for magicians of all levels.

Magic Tricks with Joel Dickinson

Joel Dickinson's experience as a performer in magic is, well... odd! He has captivated audiences in a variety of settings, from traveling circuses to theatres, and from cabaret clubs to schools. Here he will be showcasing the very best of his repertoire, blending classic illusions with cutting-edge tricks, ensuring an unforgettable magical experience.

Kay Murray

Friday: History Of Mystery, 4pm

My Mother, Trixie Queen

Trixie Queen, who had her birth certificate signed by Emmeline Pankhurst, went on to become a renowned female magician, performing into her 90s. Join Trixie's daughter, Kay Murray, in conversation with Roy Field and hear fascinating first-hand tales from Trixie's full and adventurous life, and see many of her personal props and effects . . . including a copy of that birth certificate!

Mark James

Saturday: An Evening of Magic, 7.30pm

Mark combines expert sleight of hand magic with comedy, juggling and other vaudevillian variety skills to create a unique and amazing show. Having performed for all ages, nationalities and demographics around the world, you can be sure you're in safe hands with Mark.

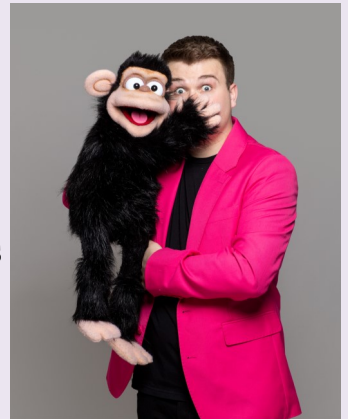

Max Fulham

Saturday: An Evening of Magic, 7.30pm

Sunday: Lecture, 2.45pm

Max Fulham is a comedian and ventriloquist who has been working professionally since his teenage years. He combines stand-up comedy with his skilled ventriloquism and puppetry to bring a contemporary twist to traditional variety entertainment. Max performs around the country in comedy clubs and cabaret shows and internationally on cruise ships. Described as "skilled and quick-witted" by The Stage and with viral success on TikTok amassing 2 million likes, Max is a performer not to be missed.

Thoughts of a Ventriloquist

In this lecture Max will delve into his techniques for ventriloquism and puppetry as well as his thoughts on creating ideas and performing comedy. Whether you want to add a puppet to your act, want to develop your comedy, or just want to sit in a room for a bit - come along!

Michael Jordan

Saturday: Sooty and Friends Show, 10.30am

Michael Jordan is an established variety artiste whose speciality act, High Jinx, features a wide range of live, visual family entertainment that includes magic, illusion, juggling, unicycling, escapology, stilt-walking and much, much more.

Dr Naomi Paxton

Sunday: Lecture, 1.30pm

Dr Naomi Paxton is a researcher, performer and broadcaster. She has published widely on the contribution of theatre professionals to the Votes for Women campaign, curated exhibitions for UK Parliament and the National Theatre, and is a BBC Radio 3/AHRC New Generation Thinker. An Associate Artist of feminist production hub Scary Little Girls, Naomi also performs comedy, cabaret and magic as her alter ego Ada Campe.

Conjuring Votes for Women: magic, persuasion and misdirection in the Edwardian suffrage campaign.

Exploring some of the connections between magic, performance, and the suffrage movement - from suffragettes disappearing into post boxes at the Egyptian Hall, to séance entertainments at suffrage fairs, to the use of disguise and doppelgangers for evading police capture. Drawing from a wide variety of archival sources, this talk will investigate the use and effect of magical arts across public and popular entertainments both for and against the campaign for Votes for Women, bringing together a history of suffragist magic practitioners and practices for the first time.

Norman Barrett MBE

Saturday: Jeffery Atkins Memorial Lecture, 3pm

Norman Barrett MBE - probably the best-known circus personality in the UK and regarded, by many, as 'The World's Greatest Ringmaster'. He was born in 1935 and made his debut in the ring at the age of twelve where he presented horses and a team of dogs with Barrett's Canadian Circus. Norman became ringmaster for the first time with the Roberts Brothers in 1956-1957 but his big chance in show business came when he joined Bertram Mills Circus as an assistant animal trainer and presenter. His outstanding contribution to circus was recognised with the award of MBE. Norman is now enjoying his retirement years in Blackpool but is still making personal appearances to share his life stories.

Olivier Henning

Saturday: An Evening of Magic, 7.30pm

Fifteen-year-old Olivier Henning from the Netherlands embraced magic just three years ago. His stage debut was in July 2022 and since then he has managed to gather an impressive trophy cabinet after starting to compete in September 2022.

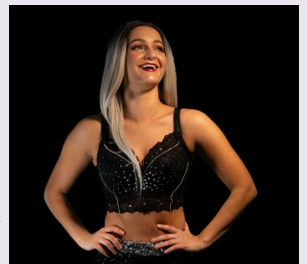

Olivier is regularly booked for gala performances all around Europe. Everything in his life revolves around magic, day in and day out, though he does also juggle and play the piano! He strives to be the best magician in the world one day.

Rebecca Foyle

Saturday: An Evening of Magic, 7.30pm

Rebecca Foyle is an outstanding stage artiste and will wow our audience in An Evening of Magic. She has travelled the world performing on some of the biggest stages including Australia and Las Vegas!

Richard Cadell and Sooty

Saturday: Sooty and Friends Show, 10.30am

Richard has worked with Sooty for more than 20 years, writing and presenting over 100 TV episodes of The Sooty Show. Sooty has just celebrated 75 magical years and is the longest running children's television show in the world!

Russ Brown

Friday: Lecture, 11.30am

Saturday: The Sooty and Friends Magic Show, 10.30am

Saturday: Stars Of Close-Up, 1.15pm

Russ was intrigued and captivated by magic from a young age. His first magic set, a Paul Daniels set, remains a prized possession. He has starred in several long-running shows at different venues around Blackpool, beginning with the Mystique show at Blackpool Pleasure Beach where Russ worked alongside Russ Stevens for several years. He has most recently returned to the Horseshoe Showbar at the Pleasure Beach alongside Britain's Got Talent finalist Steve Royle in the hit show, Comedy Chaos. Russ has numerous TV appearances to his credit alongside a wealth of experience in the Corporate market. He also has his own entertainment consultancy which produces shows in Europe and the UK. He is also the Stage Manager and joint organizer for the annual Blackpool Magic Convention.

Yes Man!

"Yes man" features some of Russ's favourite effects, some brand new ideas and discusses the scary world of saying yes to ideas and projects that scare you and then diving in head first!!

Stuart Loughland

Sunday: An Audience With, 9.30am

Stuart has four decades of experience in the entertainment industry. From gaining international acclaim with his illusion act 'Safire', including shows at the Tropicana, Las Vegas, to performing as the Dame at Theatr Colwyn for thirteen years. Stuart has shared the stage with Ken Dodd, Joanna Lumley, Peter Kay, Suranne Jones and Bradley Walsh, and completed fourteen tours with BBC's Chuckle Brothers. He is a co-owner of Magic Light Productions and he also designs and performs with 'The Magic Light Puppets'. A member of the Inner Magic Circle, Stuart conducts workshops in prop-making, magic, slapstick and puppetry. He is currently working on a new series for ITV as a magic illusion consultant.

An Audience With Stuart Loughland

In conversation with Rick Tynan, hear about Stuart's experiences, the good and the not so good, in the world of magic and entertainment!

Taylor Morgan

Saturday: An Evening of Magic, 7.30am

Direct from FISM Europe Taylor Morgan will amaze our audience in An Evening of Magic. His unique style of emotion and beauty added to the amazement of his magic is something that has had audiences all around the world in awe.
